PREVENTING REAL ESTATE FRAUD
How to Protect Yourself and Your Home
Fraud Protection Checklist

- Before working with someone in a real estate matter, check his or her license status by going to the Department of Real Estate (DRE), www.dre.ca.gov, or by calling DRE’s Consumer Information phone number at (877) 373-4542.
- Never pay cash for anything, ever. Credit cards and checks are more secure.
- Always get a signed receipt for any payments.
- Research and understand the real estate transaction process.
- Do not cut corners. Take the time to ask questions and do the necessary research and homework.
- Do not be intimidated—you are the consumer, which means you are the boss.

Remember: If it’s too good to be true, it probably is.

Fraud Alerts

Here are examples of red flags during a real estate transaction. Be extremely wary if you:

- Are asked to pay cash.
- Are asked to pay for something “on the side,” “outside of escrow,” or “after closing.”
- Are asked to pay a real estate agent directly or are asked to pay upfront fees.
- Are dealing with unlicensed agents or unlicensed brokerage companies.
- Are offered a “forensic loan audit.”
- Are dealing with “attorney-backed” businesses or law offices that refuse to provide an attorney’s name or State Bar number.
- Come across programs and companies that claim to represent Federal or State agencies or programs.
- Are given a sales pitch with logical holes, lack of details, or assumptions.
- Meet with salespeople who fail to discuss possible risks along with possible rewards. All investments carry a risk.
- Are asked to lend personal funds to an investment plan secured only by a personal note, or otherwise unsecured.
- Encounter lack of an actual business office, unwillingness to meet in an actual office, or refusal to meet in person.
- Are not provided with required State and Federal disclosures early in the real estate transaction.
- Are asked to transfer title.
- Are encouraged to make payments to someone other than your servicer.
