17 The Commissioner ("Commissioner") of the California Bureau of Real Estate

18 ("Bureau") caused an investigation to be made of the activities of DE GUARDIAN GROUP

19 ("DGG") and MARTHA PIMENTEL ("PIMENTEL"). Based on that investigation, the

20 Commissioner has determined that DGG and PIMENTEL, and/or any other fictitious business

21 names used by PIMENTEL, have engaged in, are engaging in, or are attempting to engage in,

22 acts or practices constituting violations of the California Business and Professions Code

23 ("Code"), including violating Code Section 10130 by engaging in the business of, acting in the

24 capacity of, and/or advertising or assuming to act as, a real estate broker in the State of 25 California within the meaning of Code Section 10131(d) (solicit borrowers or lenders for or

26

27

1 negotiate loans or collect payments or perform services for borrowers or lenders or note owners
2 in connection with loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property or on a business
3 opportunity). Based on the findings of that investigation, set forth below, the Commissioner
4 hereby issues the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Desist and Refrain Order
5 under the authority of Section 10086 of the Code.

6 Whenever acts referred to below are attributed to DGG or PIMENTEL, those acts are 7 alleged to have been done by PIMENTEL, acting by herself, or by and/or through one or more
8 agents, associates, affiliates, and/or co-conspirators, including but not limited to DGG and using 9 the names "De Guardian Group," "Rescate De Propidad," or other names or fictitious names
10 unknown at this time.

11
12 FINDINGS OF FACT

13 1. PIMENTEL is not now, and has never been, licensed by the Bureau in any capacity.

14 2. DE GUARDIAN GROUP is not not now, and has never been, licensed by the Bureau in 15 any capacity.

16 3. PIMENTEL and DGG solicited borrowers and negotiated to do one or more of the 17 following acts for another or others, for or in expectation of compensation: solicit or negotiate
18 one or more loans for, or perform services for, borrowers and/or lenders in connection with loans
19 secured directly or collaterally by one or more liens on real property; and charge, demand or 20 collect an advance fee for any of the services offered.

21 4. PIMENTEL advertised, and continues to advertise, loan modification services under one
22 or more business names, including, but not limited to, "DE GUARDIAN GROUP" and "Rescate
23 De Propidad," through flyers in Spanish, business cards and verbally. PIMENTEL touted a 24 success rate of ninety-eight percent (98%) in obtaining affordable loan modifications on behalf
25
26
27

1 of distressed homeowners, and indicated that the process would cost homeowners $2,500.00 to
2 $5,000.00 and take about forty-five (45) to one hundred twenty (120) days to complete.

3 Jose P.'s Transaction

4 4. In May 2010, upon receiving a flyer for DGG in front of his local grocery store, Jose P.
5 made an appointment and spoke with PIMENTEL about the possibility of a loan modification to 6 save Jose P.'s real property located in the city of McFarland, California, from foreclosure.
7 PIMENTEL promised Jose P. that she could stop the foreclosure proceedings against his 8 property and obtain an affordable loan modification so that he would pay only 25% of what was 9 owed on the house. PIMENTEL said that the charge for these services was $1,200.00.
10

11 5. Jose P. made two payments in cash to PIMENTEL's home address located in 12 McFarland, California: the first payment of $800 was paid on May 19, 2010 and the second
13 payment of $400 was paid on June 30, 2010.

14 6. After six months elapsed, PIMENTEL became non-responsive to Jose P.'s phone calls
15 and home visits. In PIMENTEL's last conversation with Jose P., she informed him that the 16 president of DGG was in prison and that unless he paid additional money, she would cease work
17 on his loan modification.
18

19 7. Jose P. did not make additional payments to PIMENTEL and lost his home in 20 foreclosure at the end of 2011.

21 Maria B.'s Transaction

22 8. In January 2011, Maria B. hired PIMENTEL and Rescate de Propidad to perform loan
23 modification services to save Maria B.'s real property located in the city of Delano, California
24 from foreclosure. PIMENTEL promised to stop the foreclosure proceedings and obtain an 25 affordable loan modification for Maria B. PIMENTEL informed Maria B. that her fee for these 26
27

1 services was $5,000.00, and that installment payments were acceptable. On or about April 13,
2 2011, Maria B. paid $1000.00 to PIMENTEL at PIMENTEL's home in McFarland, California.
3 Thereafter, PIMENTEL came to Maria B.'s home and Maria B. made additional payments to 4 PIMENTEL in the amounts: $1,500 on May 9, 2011; $500.00 on July 20, 2011; $500.00 on or 5 about October 4, 2011; and $300.00 on or about November 4, 2011, for a total of $3,800.00.

6
7 9. By December 2011, PIMENTEL failed to deliver the promised loan modification or 8 refund Maria B.'s money.

9 10. On or about February 2012, Maria B.'s lender foreclosed upon the subject property in 10 Delano and Maria B. was given notice to vacate the property as soon as possible.

11 Pimentel's Continued Unlicensed Activity

12 11. On or about May 8, 2012, a representative of the Bureau called PIMENTEL at DGG's
13 advertised phone number and PIMENTEL revealed that she continued to offer loan modification 14 services and that her success rate of obtaining loan modifications for distressed homeowners was 15 ninety eight percent (98%). PIMENTEL also indicated in the same call that her fees for such 16 services were $2,500.00 and that the process required forty-five (45) to one hundred twenty 17 (120) days to complete.
18

19 12. On or about May 15, 2012, a representative of the Bureau contacted PIMENTEL to 20 discuss the allegations of her collection of advance fees for loan modification services.
21 PIMENTEL admitted to collecting advance fees of $1,200.00 from Jose P. and $3,800.00 from 22 Martha B., and also admitted that she failed to obtain affordable loan modifications on behalf of 23 Jose P. and Martha B.
24

25 13. On or about April 12, 2013, a representative of the Bureau called PIMENTEL at the 26 advertised phone number. PIMENTEL revealed that she continued to offer loan modification
27

1 services. PIMENTEL indicated to the caller that she was part of an attorneys' network that
2 assisted distressed homeowners in saving their homes from foreclosure, and that the fees for such
3 services were $5,000.00.

4 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

6 14. Based on the findings of fact contained in paragraphs 1 through 13, DGG, acting by 7 itself, or by and/or through one or more agents, associates, representatives, and/or co-
8 conspirators, including, but not limited to PIMENTEL, and using the names "De Guardian
9 Group," "Rescate De Propidad," or other names or fictitious names unknown at this time,
10 solicited borrowers to negotiate loans or perform services, in connection with loans secured
11 directly or collaterally by one or more liens on real property. These acts, which require a real 12 estate broker license under Code Section 10131(d), were performed during a period of time when 13 DGG was not licensed by the Bureau as a real estate broker, a violation of Code Section 10130.

14 15. Based on the findings of fact contained in paragraphs 1 through 13, PIMENTEL,
15 acting by herself, or by and/or through one or more agents, associates, representatives, and/or co-
16 conspirators, including, but not limited to DGG, and using the names "De Guardian Group,"
17 "Rescate De Propidad," or other names or fictitious names unknown at this time, solicited
18 borrowers to negotiate loans or perform services, in connection with loans secured directly or 19 collaterally by one or more liens on real property. These acts, which require a real estate broker
20 license under Code Section 10131(d), were performed during a period of time when PIMENTEL
21 was not licensed by the Bureau as a real estate broker, a violation of Code Section 10130.
